

Population-to-Primary Care Provider Ratio

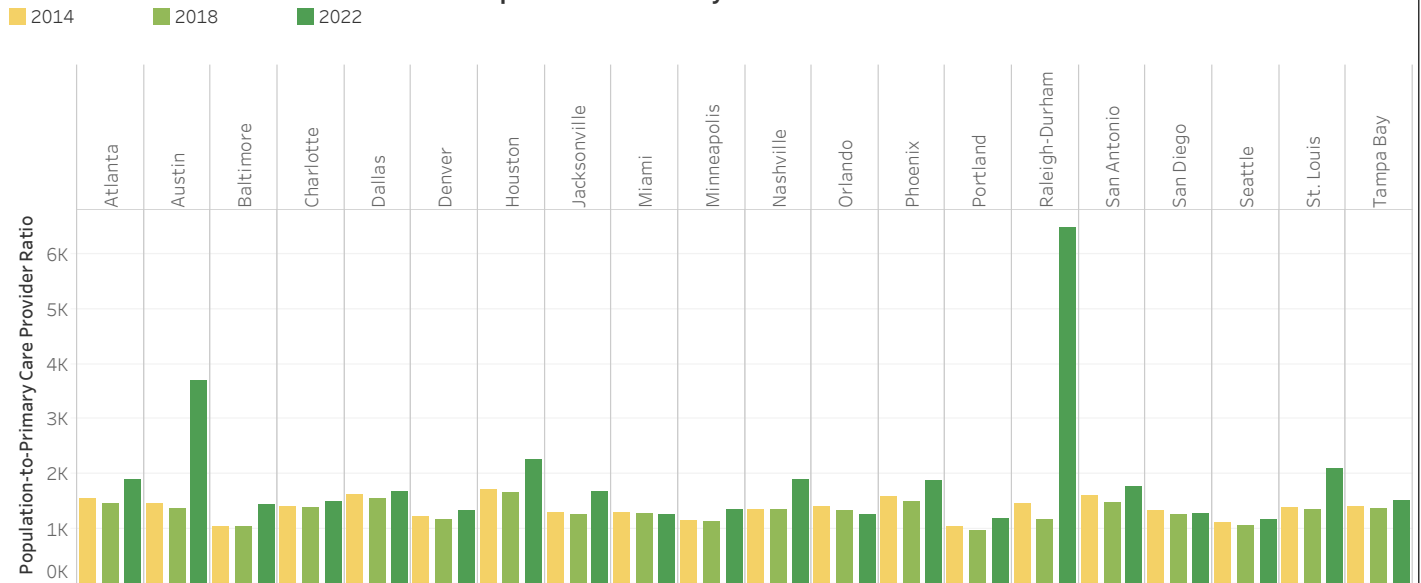

All MSAs have comparable number of primary care providers per population.

There has been no notable increase in the number of primary health care providers in the Tampa Bay region.

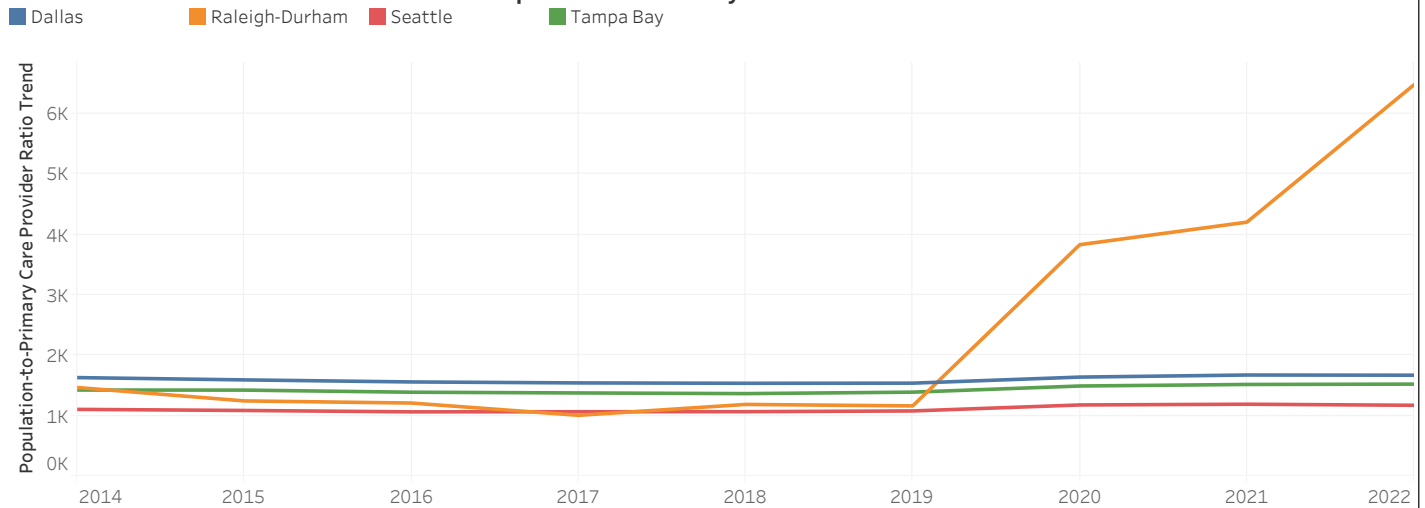

About: The population-to-primary-care-provider ratio represents the number of individuals served by one primary care physician in a geographic area.

Source: countyhealthrankings.org

Population-to-Primary Care Provider Ratio

Population-to-Primary Care Provider Ratio Trend

Competitive Position Trend

